Remarks

Chorister: Thom Hamm Pianist: Doug Napoltes

Sabbath School this morning takes on a different shape than we've had in the past weeks. We are all meeting in the sanctuary including the adult class, the high school class and the children's class. We will have an interactive review session of the past 12 weeks. That is, each class will have questions asked of them that are specific to what that class has studied in recent weeks. The teachers from each class have submitted the questions. We will also do a lot of singing during this Sabbath School time. Welcome, welcome to Sabbath School this morning!

🎁 SCRIPTURE READING 🎁

Romans 13:11-12, NIV

And do this, understanding the present time: The hour has already come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. The night is nearly over; the day is almost here.

So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light.
